Student Weekaton Contract

Valley Torah trips are legendary for building achdus and creating lifelong memories. The success of our trips has been accomplished by fostering an atmosphere of teamwork, camaraderie, and safety. In keeping with these goals we have highlighted some rules and expectations in the following contract. Please read the following trip guidelines, print your name and and complete both parent and student signatures below.

I, _____ hereby acknowledge the following trip policies:

- Students are to be present at all scheduled functions including Tefillos, meals, and activities.
- Students who come more than 20 minutes late to Shacharis or miss any Tefilla, will be docked from the day's activity.
- Student luggage is subject to search at any time throughout the trip.
- Each student will have an assigned staff member that he reports to. You must register your phone number with your chaperone and remain in an organized texting group until advised otherwise.
- Students who are found off designated grounds without permission will be sent home at parent's expense with no refund.
- Students who are found with or appear to have been influenced by any unapproved substance such as alcohol, etc. will be sent home at parent's expense with no refund.
- Student's who jeopardize the safety and security of any trip member will will be sent home at parent's expense with no refund.
- Valley Torah staff will use their judgement to determine compliance with these guidelines.
